

RUTHERFORD BENCH - WIDE BODY

Model Number : RW-6

DESIGNER NOTES

This is one of our bestselling benches in a wide body design. The additional space on each end provides extra leg room for optimal comfort and ease of accessibility. The angle of the armrest matches exactly to the way one's leg naturally rests. The beauty of these features is that they allow any user (but specifically older users) to effortlessly get in and out of the bench. Designed with aesthetics and serenity in mind this bench virtually invites the user to sit for long periods in style.
